

Join us on February 14–16, 2025, for a weekend of public discussions, exhibits, and live performances to explore how memory and hope shape daily life: work, education, affection, and society.

24 Events*

Over 60 speakers

Over 300 volunteers

Over 12,000 visitors

* Numbers from NY Encounter 2023

Music, art, thought provoking discussions, incredible talks and coffee with community. This is New York Encounter.

Another Way is offering roundtrip transportation for your group from your parish to New York City, 2 nights accommodations in the heart of New York City at the Catholic Leo House a 13 minute walk to the event location, and breakfast for one morning all for $430 per person.

This is limited to 11 persons. Priests or group leaders go for free. Call James Carmody for reservations: 203 375 3552-H or 203 685 6277-C

The Chapel at the Leo House. Where we can have morning and night prayer together.

